

July 1, 1941.

Mr. Ed. Gottlieb,
509 Market St.,
Philadelphia, Pa.

Dear Gottlieb:

I am enclosing check for $175.68, the total bill for booking fees for this year to date was $197.58, the difference of $21.90 represents the amount due from Chester last night. The man gave Bill $48.00 in cash, and charged him $2.50 for one Umpire, $1.00 for the other one, and $2.60 for balls. This money added to the $48.00 leaves a balance of $21.90 due from the $75.00 guarantee, you told me you had that money in your possession.

I am working on the last year statement of booking fees, and will send it to you within a day or two. I know you want to keep that a separate item any way.

Please give Iannarella the enclosed copy for the placards in Richmond. I will order those for the 15th and 16th in the next day or so.

Very truly yours,

EM:CCJ